

Los Angeles

What Obama Has in Common With Spielberg by John Powers

CUBE

The Fab FOUR

The Hollywood Bowl concerts start this month—get those picnics packed. Wine can be added to any of these baskets.

1 Tender Greens

The "Veggie," "Sandwich," and "Dinner" boxes feature combos of TG's trademark fresh fare: flatiron steak, grilled ahi, grilled veggies, faro salad with cranberries, potato salad with horseradish sauce, cupcakes.

» 9523 Culver Blvd., Culver City, 310-842-8300 or tendergreensfood.com.

Divine on apple cake are highlights in the baskets of this mini gourmet store.

» 615 N. La Brea Ave., L.A., 323-939-1148 or divinepasta.com.

3 Joan's on Third

Anything in Joan's larder—Korean short ribs, meat loaf, chicken salad, bocconcini with baby tomatoes, outrageous cupcakes—can be boxed up along with cheeses, crackers, and other goodies. » 8350 W. 3rd St., L.A., 323-655-2285 or joansonthird.com.

4 Auntie Em's

The "Jazz Picnic" features a torte milanese, the "Blues Picnic" a chicken and applewood-smoked bacon sandwich. Both have salads, cheese with homemade crackers, and cookies and cakes. » 4616 Eagle Rock Blvd., Eagle Rock, 323-255-0800 or auntieemskitchen.com. // M.D.

$4.95
JUNE 2007

The Iraq War Comes Home: Casualty #2509

» BY STEVE ONEY

The King of Premium Jeans

» BY DAVE GARDETTA

The Best of South Pasadena

» BY LESLEE KOMAIKO

The Mad, Mad, Mad World of LA Realtors

» BY DAVID FERRELL

* Paul R

The whole poop on karaoke movies, and getting 'Knoc